Job outline

The overall aim of this project you will oversee is to work closely with boys and young men and facilitate positive changes in behaviour towards relationships, identity and gender. You will work with boys and young men through a programme of sessions that address: good communication, healthy relationships, consent, violence, masculinity, identity, and conflict resolution. Broader outcomes, as a result, will include reducing substance misuse and involvement in crime or risky behaviour.

This position is only open to applicants who identify as male. (Equality Act 2010 Schedule 9 Part 1) as the worker will be working one-to-one with boys and young men in an all-male identifying space.

Main tasks

1. Work with 13-19-year-old who identify as boys and young men through one to one short interventions, group work, and individual casework supporting boys and young men for a series of sessions.

2. Work with young men to set and achieve short term goals to change behaviours and attitudes.
3. Work with schools/services to plan, develop, deliver and evaluate workshops around being a boy/young man.
4. Undertake monitoring and evaluation of all activities and projects to produce a record of work undertaken, including outputs and case studies, and where appropriate outcomes of such work.
5. Obtain feedback from young men on the programme sessions and workshops and use this information to further inform future programme developments.
6. Attend local events, conferences and professional meetings to promote the programme to boys and young men and key stakeholders.
7. Assess young men's sexual health needs contacted through outreach and/or referrals and provide a range of information, referral and signposting to services as necessary.
8. Further develop METRO's relationships with statutory and non-statutory services throughout Medway and work together with youth services, Youth Offending Team (YOT), schools, and pupil referral units.

Other duties

1. Adhere to METRO policies and procedures at all times.
2. In line with METRO's policy on Information Governance (IG), confidentiality and data handling, you will be expected to undertake, pass and maintain the required IG modules as indicated by your line manager.
3. Ensure sensitive and confidential recording and handling of information in accordance with the Data Protection Act, GDPR regulations and METRO's Information Governance Policies.
4. In line with METRO's policy on Safeguarding, you will be expected to undertake, pass and maintain the required Safeguarding Training Modules as indicated by your line manager.
5. Attend regular supervision, and undertake appropriate training as agreed. Maintain and update knowledge, skills and undertake continuing education in accordance with personal and service needs within a framework of a personal development plan.
6. Undertake any other appropriate duties as requested by the Manager. If these duties are extensive and of a higher job description scale, the terms and conditions of the post may be varied in negotiation with your line manager.
